

The Song of the Doryman

CRES School Song

We launch our dories each and every day to the challenges of the sea

Our craft may be slight but pay you no mind, we're as safe as safe can be

We harvest and stow our treasures, and when day's work is done

We look forward to another day at sea, to the oars at next rising sun!