

Book Study Request Form

There are so many books and so little time! However, if you and a group of colleagues would like to explore a professional development topic together, in the format of a book study, let Deb McIntyre know! Deb will see if she can support your efforts with the purchase of your books and the certification team can consider hours towards your recertification. Complete and submit this form to debra.mcintyre@fivetowns.net

Facilitator:

Participants:

Purpose:

Measurable Goal:

How does this directly relate to the districts' mission and vision? How will you make this connection for participants?

Marshall - Domain(s) Addressed:

Book and costs per book (include link):

Proposed Schedule (dates/times):

Proposed Assignments:

Participant's Reflection: How will learners demonstrate their learning? What will be the evidence that this made a difference for our students?

(The evidence of learning for each participant will need to be submitted at the conclusion of the book study.)

Proposed Number of Contact Hours:

Approved: _____ Asst. Superintendent

Approved: _____ Certification Chair

Date:

After approval, please make sure to enter a prior approval for this activity on the certification website.